

10 ways to play in December

Pretend play in the car.

Imagine you are in an airplane, taxi, train, royal carriage, or sailboat.

Make paint blots

Fold a piece of paper in half, then unfold. Squeeze or drop blobs of paint on the paper. Refold the paper and rub to spread the paint. Open it up and see what you made!

Draw a picture of your favorite kind of weather.

Go for a night walk.

5
Go to the library.

6 Make an office supply collage.

Gather labels, tape, highlighters, index cards, paper clips, Post-It notes, and other supplies and create something.

7 Try playing with different toy combinations.

Here are a few starter ideas:

- blocks + dolls
- play dishes + fabric scraps
- play dough + plastic animals

8
Have a pajama & pancakes day.

9 Make animal face sandwiches.

Spread an English muffin or piece of toast with cream cheese or peanut butter. Make eyes, nose, mouth, ears, or whiskers with toppings like raisins, banana slices, cereal, etc.

10

Take turns tracing your shadows with sidewalk chalk.

happy playing!
